Dr. Joey is the President of Listen to Life, a company he started to stimulate and coach individuals and organizations to redefine their reality and make their dreams come true by listening to life and making a life, not just a living. He shares everyday stories as a professional speaker, coach, author, and is host of a nationally syndicated radio show and newspaper column. Dr. Joey has also created the web site—listentolife.org that serves an international audience from some 50 countries.

Dr. Joey lives with his wife, Rowan on Pleasant Gap Farm where they board horses and raise yellow Labrador retrievers. His daughter, Rebekah, lives in Richmond and his younger daughter, Elizabeth, enters Methodist University in Fayetteville, NC this fall.
